

Lars Peter Fredén

Career

2010-	Swedish Ambassador to China
2008-2010	Swedish Ambassador to Macedonia, Kosovo and Albania (resident in Skopje)
2006-2008	Swedish Ambassador to Croatia
2004-2006	Head of the International Relations Department, European Space Agency, Paris
2002-2004	Deputy Head of Department for Asia and Oceania, MFA, Stockholm
1998-2002	Minister and Deputy Chief of Mission, Swedish Embassy in Beijing
1995-1998	Minister and Deputy Chief of Mission, Swedish Embassy in Moscow
1994-1995	Special Assistant (Baltic Issues) to the Minister for Foreign Affairs
1992-1994	Special Assistant (Security Policy) to the Prime Minister
1989-1992	Swedish Consul in Riga
1987-1989	Desk officer for China, Japan and Korea at the Ministry for Foreign Affairs
1986-1987	A.M. in East Asian Studies, Harvard University
1984-1986	Vice Consul at the Swedish Consulate General in Hong Kong
1983-1984	Second Secretary at the Swedish Embassy in Beirut
1982-1983	Trainee at the Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Stockholm
1981-1982	Beijing University (Department of Philosophy)
1980-1981	Shandong University, Jinan (Department of Literature)
1973-1974	Swedish basic university degree (Russian and Chinese)
1971-1973	Brandeis University, Waltham, Mass., B.A., History
1970-1971	Swedish Army Language School, Russian

Born August 09, 1951. Single

Holder of several Latvian, Estonian and Lithuanian orders and medals. Member of the Royal Swedish Academy of War Sciences.

Books (in Swedish, Estonian, Latvian and Lithuanian) on the independence movement in the Baltic states and the collapse of the USSR.